

The Gurmat Samagam organized by GDC Tral from October 10 to October 12, 2024, at Gurdwara Boarding House Tral was a commendable initiative aimed at fostering interfaith harmony, fraternity, and peace. The event, inaugurated by the esteemed Principal Prof. (Dr.) Mushtaq Ahmad Malik, emphasized the teachings of the Gurus and the significance of peaceful coexistence. In his inaugural speech, Prof. Malik warmly welcomed attendees and pledged to organize similar events in the future to strengthen interfaith bonds and mutual understanding.

The event witnessed active participation from notable Sikh community members, including Gurmanpreet Singh (Delhi), Popinder Singh (Pahalgam), Arnupal Singh and Jatinpall Singh (Saimoh), Ravinder Singh (Chatargam), Kavinder Singh (Baigund), and Kamalgeet Singh (Kanglora). These distinguished guests shared valuable insights on the theme, enriching the discussions and inspiring the audience.

The Gurmat Sangam Celebration Committee, led by its convener Dr. Amarpjeet Singh, Head of the Department of Punjabi, managed the program seamlessly. The event was attended by all faculty members and approximately 100 enthusiastic students, reflecting the college's commitment to promoting unity and spiritual learning. The vibrant spirit of the participants underscored the success of the program in achieving its noble objectives.
