Student Council GDC Tral 2024

On 4th June 2024, a meeting of the Student Council of GDC Tral 2024 was convened in the college's mini-auditorium by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The event saw the participation of dozens of student council members.

The IQAC convener, Dr. Ferooze Ahmad Rafiqi, addressed the gathering, shedding light on various student-related issues. His talk primarily focused on the roles and responsibilities of students within the college community.

In a display of commitment, the students pledged to work for the college with unwavering passion, vigor, vitality, and enthusiasm.

The meeting's agenda covered several crucial areas:

1. Mentor-Mentee Responsibilities: Discussing the expectations and duties in the mentor-mentee relationships to foster better guidance and support systems.
2. Curriculum-Related Issues: Addressing concerns and suggestions related to the academic curriculum to enhance educational outcomes.
3. Co-Curricular Activities: Exploring the importance and implementation of activities that complement the academic curriculum.
4. Extra-Curricular Activities: Emphasizing the significance of activities outside the academic sphere that contribute to overall student development.

This meeting underscored the commitment of both students and faculty to work collaboratively towards the betterment of GDC Tral
